

Matriculation and Promotion

Medical students will advance only after having met the academic, financial, and professional requirements of LMU-DCOM for each academic year. Students taking nine or more credits are considered full-time students. Each year the Faculty Assembly will vote on promotion of the class.