

Repeating Semesters

In some instances, as approved by the Student Progress Committee and Dean, students may be required to repeat a year of coursework. Students will be charged $5,000 for a semester in which they did not fail any coursework but were required to repeat. Students will be charged $10,000 for a repeat semester with at least one failure in their coursework.